Crisis Protection for People, Assets and Reputation

Ascot Guard provides a clear, people focused solution, combining broad, affirmative coverage with specialist crisis management expertise - supporting insureds not just financially, but operationally and reputationally, when it matters most.

Why Ascot Guard?

The safety of people is a primary concern for any business. Employees, whether expats or local nationals, and the extended workforce can sometimes require specialist support in complex and often fragile situations.

Ascot Guard - Flight gives you market leading support, guidance and access to logistics and international networks to support you when you may need to move your people quickly and safely.

What the coverage provides?

Available in modular format allowing clients to select the coverage they need, our FLIGHT insurance can provide coverage for the following security and medical concerns:

- Political and security evacuation
- Natural disaster evacuation
- Medical evacuation

Coverage provides support for in country and out of country movements, is available for expatriates and local nationals and their families. Costs can include:

- Evacuation and Repatriation related travel costs
- Crisis Response support and advice
- Temporary Accommodation during an evacuation
- Salary indemnity
- Personal possessions including domestic pets
- Legal Advice
- Psychological trauma support

The coverage also provides unlimited, non-urgent, ongoing safety advice from our crisis response consultants, allowing you to make informed decisions on the safety of your people.

Integrated crisis support

As part of Ascot Guard - Flight from day one you have access to leading crisis response consultants and, should you need to activate your policy, guaranteed emergency support 24/7, allowing you to focus on supporting the people impacted and managing business continuity.

Services that can be provided include but are not limited to:

-  Advice on preparedness
-  Immediate assessment, strategic planning and guidance
-  The deployment of a response team and extended local network facilitators to the location
-  Family liaison and support
-  Internal and external communications support
-  Evacuation management and co-ordination of travel
-  Assistance sourcing and engaging with necessary suppliers such as medical transit teams, munitions clearance, complex environment legal advisors
-  Post incident trauma support

The risk landscape

The fragile geopolitical landscape and frequency of natural disaster events can present a highly complex scenario for a risk management team. Intelligence, preparedness and the phases of movement are highly dynamic and often in difficult, sometimes hostile environments.

Ascot Guard - Flight gives you peace of mind that, should your people need to move or remain safe, our crisis response consultants have conducted numerous evacuations in highly volatile circumstances.

Target clients

-  Any organisations seeking to fulfill their Duty of Care obligations by providing emergency evacuation, medical assistance, crisis response and safety support for employees and other covered persons worldwide.
